

About Jakobsberg Hotel & Resort

Nestled atop a rise in the picturesque Middle Rhine Valley, the Jakobsberg Hotel & Resort is considered one of the UNESCO World Heritage Site's jewels. The historical establishment with fabulous views over the Rhine's largest bend near the Lorelei has 101 rooms and 4 suits. In addition to a golf course, hunting grounds and a vineyard, the property also has a clay pigeon shooting range and a helipad. The perfect playground for discerning guests.

About Campus Jakobsberg

The Campus Jakobsberg markets and manages seven modern conference rooms for up to 220 participants and event spaces able to accommodate up to 1,500 guests. With quick access to the airports in both Frankfurt/Main and Cologne/Bonn, a unique incentive portfolio and comprehensive array of conjunctural programs, the Jakobsberg is an extraordinary destination for conferences, meetings, product launches and commemorative events. The location over the riverbanks of the Rhine also affords protocol chiefs and security personnel the restricted access necessary when providing privacy and protection.
